

Considerations for Reporting to Patient Safety Evaluation System

*Information that must be reported to states under mandatory reporting laws or to other federal agencies under other mandates, does not gain PSQIA's protection from disclosure by virtue of being reported to a patient safety evaluation system as it no longer constitutes patient safety work product. However, collecting this data in the patient safety evaluation system allows for more inclusive and accurate data analysis.